DELEGATES, COMMISSIONER

The two Delegates and lone resident Commissioner in Congress have been assigned to the same committees of which they were members in the 82nd Congress.

E. L. Bartlett (D), Delegate from Alaska, again will serve on the House Agriculture, Armed Services, Merchant Marine and Fisheries, and Interior and Insular Affairs Committees, by virtue of H Res 112, agreed to by the House without a record vote Jan. 26.

The same resolution elected Antonio Fernos-Isern (D), Resident Commissioner from Puerto Rico to the House Agriculture, Armed Services and Interior and Insular Affairs units.

Delegate Joseph R. Farrington (R) of Hawaii was elected to the same Committees as Fernos-Isern when the House Jan. 22 agreed to H Res 107 by voice vote.

These three Members of Congress have the same rights in Committee as other Congressmen with one important exception.

They cannot vote on measures, although they can introduce them.
